

Become a PloughMATE!

If you are enjoying the noise emanating from the assembled yokels, why not register your interest by joining the PloughMates mailing list?

You will receive a sporadic communication called PloughPost, which will keep you up to speed with the movements of the band and includes news, comment, knitting patterns and full details of upcoming appearances.

Simply scrawl your email address opposite, fold this 'flyer' as indicated by the dotted lines and 'post it - by air mail - towards the band.
